

OffSec's Strategic Account Loyalty Program

OffSec, the world's most trusted provider of continuous cybersecurity workforce development and learning, invites select large global enterprise customers to join our new Partner Program through an exclusive membership. Loyal members will receive access to special product offerings in addition to benefits and incentives that support further adoption of our cybersecurity training solutions.

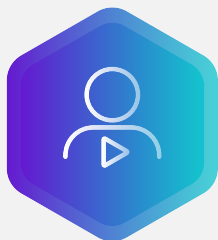

Loyalty Program Benefits

As you reach each of our five star tiers your loyalty will gain you access to:

Special Pricing

Unlock incremental pricing incentives as your team expands its training potential with OffSec.

Live Training Opportunities

Being a member of our Partner Program and ecosystem enables you greater access to live training opportunities offered by OffSec and our Partners.

Rewards Points

Earn rewards points that can be redeemed in our online Rewards Center for official OffSec merchandise, access to special discounts, invites to exclusive events & more.

Special Product Offering: Learn Enterprise and OffSec Cyber Range

Access to OffSec's extensive Learning Library and Cyber Range (OCR) provides loyalty program members with the platform, resources and support needed to better recruit, retain and upskill employees. Product incentives also include exclusive volume discounts and the ability to redistribute licenses amongst employees.
